

Medications Quiz (2nd Year)

Which of the following antibiotics are safe to give to a patient who is allergic to Penicillin? Circle the right answer/s!

Flucloxacillin	Co-Amoxiclav	Clarithromycin
Benzylpenicillin	Clindamycin	Teicoplanin

What does PPI stand for and what is its use?

.....

Name these 3 common PPI medications!

- O.....
- L.....
- R.....

How often can you take these pain relief medications?

- Paracetamol -
- Codeine Phosphate -
- Ibuprofen -
- Zomorph -
- Oxycodone -

When giving opioid based medications, particularly Morphine Sulphate, which observation should be closely monitored and why?

.....
.....

What do Gliclazide and Metformin help to manage?

.....

Is Actrapid given to treat hypoglycaemia or hyperglycaemia?

.....

What is it?!

Before this drug is given you should check a patient's heart rate. If it is below 60 BPM, it should be deferred, and the doctor's advice should be sought.

.....

Before giving the following medications, what observation should be checked? Ramipril, Atenolol, Bendroflumathiazide, Amlodipine.

.....

What should be checked before giving Levemir, Humulin and Novorapid?

.....

What is the recommended dose of Tinzaparin for patients who weigh the following?

- Below 50KG -
- 50 – 100KG -
- Over 100KG -

What is the difference between therapeutic and prophylactic Tinzaparin?

.....

.....

What are Chlorphenamine and Cetirizine used for?

.....

What is Naloxone used for?

.....